

Schedule of language classes for the academic year 2013/14

The World Language Learning Centre will provide an exciting environment to experiment with languages in a creative, fun and practical way. All classes will use theatre-based performance techniques in the class room and make optimum use of the radio and video studios. Courses will run for 2 hours per week, structured as two one-hour classes on different days for younger learners and as a two-hour session once a week for adults.

Start dates

The courses at the World Language Learning Centre will officially open to the public on 7th October 2013 and run during the GWA-Etoy school term time. Class sizes will be limited to 12 students, so early enrolment is advised.

English

The LAMDA communication courses are ideal for native and non-native speakers who would like to build confidence, widen vocabulary and develop their personal presentation skills. LAMDA is one of the most highly respected drama schools in London and offers internationally recognised examinations, which, at the higher level, provide the student with points for the UCAS university entry system. GWA-Etoy is registered with LAMDA as a private examination centre in Switzerland.

French

The French courses will be adapted from the English LAMDA communication syllabus. There will be the opportunity to take the DELF prim, junior and adult examinations.

Mandarin

Mandarin will be offered as a beginners course following a theatre-based approach to learning.

One-to-one classes and bespoke corporate packages in a wide range of languages

Should you prefer to follow one-to-one classes or have specific requirements for your business, please contact us to discuss this further. We would be more than happy to structure a bespoke learning programme to meet your needs.
